Join us for this 6-hour workshop examining deafness as the "Grand Narrative" and "Deafhood" as the counter-narrative about Deaf culture. It also includes a brief history of Deaf people and hearing people, particularly "Oralist Colonialism" as well as the Deaf Resurgence taking place today. Through participation in engaging discussions and group activities attendees will further explore other dimensions on cultural organizations, working with Deaf people, acknowledging privilege, and being a Deafhood Ally.

Workshop is presented in ASL without voice interpretation.
