Mental Health Interpreting: A View from the Couch

PRESENTED BY ALAN MARCUS, PhD, CSC

June 24, 2017 9AM - 4PM

Cost: $90/Student $80 (.6 PS CEUs)

Doubletree by Hilton Silver Spring, MD

Mental health interpreting can be intimidating, whether in a practitioner's office, hospital or locked unit. Dr. Alan Marcus, CSC and licensed practicing psychologist, will provide critical information you need to know before taking the assignment, including:

- Learn how to manage yourself and the work
- Explore frequently used vocabulary, both in treatment and diagnosis
- View videos of clients to understand types you may encounter
- Review and practice interpreting the mental status exam
- Discuss the importance of knowing "yourself" and how it influences the assignments you take

As Forest Gump said, Mental Health Interpreting is "like a box of chocolates, you never know what you are gonna get".
