

The Interpreter's Quick Guide to Self-Employment

PRESENTED BY ROSEMARY JOHNSON, NIC

JUNE 16, 2018 9AM-1PM (.4 PS CEUS)

DoubleTree by Hilton Silver Spring, MD

Cost: $60 ($50 for students)

Being a freelance interpreter requires much more than just interpreting. The focus on language and skill can mean the business side of the profession falls through the cracks. In this workshop, participants will learn the basics of self-employment, business and finance when it comes to being a freelance interpreter. By identifying as business owners and using strategy with taxes, insurance, retirement and business practices; interpreters can empower themselves and make decisions that improve their current and future careers. Learn from the expert who literally wrote the book on the guide to self-employment!

REGISTER NOW!
deafaccess.com/workshop

Rosemary Johnson has been an interpreter and entrepreneur for 7 years. While maintaining a full time freelance interpreting career, Rosemary also co-authored the book "The Interpreter's Quick Guide to Self-Employment" which is currently being used by several ITPs nationwide, founded Labyrinth LLC which provides resources for parents/educators working with special needs children, founded Golden Spiral Art which provides custom artwork for interior designers, and is the President of PAL which is a nonprofit organization awakening special needs teens to a variety of world opportunities. Rosemary has spent the last 6 years researching and implementing business/finance strategies and is looking forward to sharing her knowledge with the community!

CANCELLATION POLICY: Full refund 22+ days in advance, 50% refund, 11-21 days in advance, no refund 10 days or less

For more information contact development@deafaccess.com